*Our soldiers bear what we cannot see
 They assure our right to live life free
 Each trained will face an unknown fate
 Our support they need, don't hesitate
 Just imagine how this land would be Without their courage - catastrophe
 All the liberties we have grown to know
 Would not exist, this life would go
 Find a thankfulness within your mind
 Speak gratitude for our bravest kind
 Have the willingness to show you care
 For fallen heroes, hold back no tear
 Reach out to God with his guiding light
 For our troops do pray,
 both day and night
 America raise your flags to wave*

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24: God does not rejoice in the destruction of the living. Rather God formed human beings to be imperishable, and if we practice justice we will live forever.

2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13 -15: Christians should be generous to others in imitation of the sovereign liberality of Christ who gave His life for the salvation of all.

Mk 5:21-43: Jesus overcomes the death of Jairus's daughter and the ailment of the woman with the hemorrhage. He thus prefigures His victory over the death of alienation from God. Jesus is the Prophet of the end-time who has come to bring life, in other words, to restore our relationship of love with God.

Today's Message: Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome through the resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made Himself poor that we might become rich.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Who's More Generous?

Does the Christian duty to help the poor seem to be overwhelming? We hear more and more about the homeless and jobless. Even in St. Paul's time there was more than enough poverty to go around. He was trying to build interest (in our second reading) in a project to help the Christians in Jerusalem. We see two of his reasons here.

First he tells what fine Christians they are, and hopes that they will be just as good in giving to his collection. Paul is challenging them to continue to show their love for God in their support for fellow Christians. The second reason was to show a good example: By helping the church in Jerusalem, they would show that Christians were united in faith and love for each other.

The main example he uses is Jesus, who made himself poor (i.e., human) so that we could be rich in grace and forgiveness. Paul challenges them, and us, to follow that example in giving from our wealth so that others can survive. Note that he doesn't expect them to live in poverty, just to share what they have out of love for Christ.

Today, we can ask ourselves, "Do I give to the poor because I feel guilty about all that I have? Or do I want to show my love for Jesus when I see him in the poor?" By looking at why we give to charities, we may find ourselves being even more generous than we expected. Tom Schmidt

Catholic Trivia ANSWER: D - Saint Irenaeus became the Bishop in Lyon France in about 177 A.D. and was known for expanding Christian communities and for combating heresies, particularly, Gnosticism which emphasized personal spiritual knowledge above the teachings and traditions of the Church. Irenaeus wrote "Against the Heresies" about the authoritative tradition of the Church of Rome handed down from Peter and Paul through an unbroken succession. He highlighted the unity and goodness of God and attested that the Gospel of John was written by John the Apostle and the Gospel of Luke was written by Luke, companion of Paul. Pope Francis declared Irenaeus the 37th Doctor of the Church on January 21, 2022. He is the patron Saint of those who work for the unity of the Eastern and Western Churches and his memorial is on June 28th.
